CITES PLACES TAKEN FROM CIVIL SERVICE

Representative Fess Issues

Statement on Subject.

Lists the Acts.

"Raids on the civil service" is the subject of a statement issued today by Representative Simeon D. Fess of Ohio, chairman of the national republican congressional committee's public organization.

Fess declares that thousands of government positions have been taken from the civil service status during the present administration, which "believes that public office exists for the individual."

Representative Fess illustrates his argument by listing certain acts of Congress as follows:

Lists Acts of Congress.

"June 23, 1913—Technical services in the office of the supervising architect in connection with plans, specifications and construction of the central heating plant exempted from the classified service. This was a rider on an appropriation bill."

"October 3, 1913—Agents, deputy collectors, inspectors and other employees in connection with the income tax exempted from civil service rules."

"October 22, 1913—Deputy collectors of internal revenue and deputy United States marshals exempted from the civil service rules. This was a rider upon an appropriation bill."

"December 23, 1913—Employees under the federal reserve act not included in the civil service regulations."

"July 16, 1914—Commercial attaches Department of Commerce, exempted from regulations of the merit system. This was a rider to an appropriation bill."

"August 1, 1914—Commissioner to five migration, New Orleans, by a rider upon an appropriation bill, exempted from the merit system."

"August 1, 1914—Commissioner to five civil service taken out of the civil service regulations by a rider to an appropriation bill."

"September 26, 1914—Federal interstate trade commission secretary, clerks to each commissioner, attorney, special agents and examiners from the merit system regulations."

"January 28, 1915—Life-saving service made a part of the military force by including in the coast guard."

Merit System Repudiated.

"The Wilson administration went before the country with a program in glaring headlines—Underwood tariff bill, federal reserve act, interstate trade commission, rural credits. Every one of these legislative acts repudiates the merit system in appointments."

"According to Representative Good of Iowa, member of the House appropriations committee, the democrats have created at least 30,000 new positions at an annual cost to the country of over $36,000,000."

RED CROSS GETS $25,000

FOR BASE HOSPITAL UNIT

Fritz Achells of New York Makes

Contribution—Thanked by Maj. Gen. Arthur Murray.

The American Red Cross has just received a contribution of $25,000 from Fritz Achells of New York city, to finance the complete equipment of an American Red Cross base hospital unit which is being organized by the military relief department of the Red Cross with a staff from the German Hospital in New York.

The director of this unit is Dr. Frederick Kammerer, who recently withdrew from active service with the German army.

In a letter of appreciation to Mr. Achells, Maj. Gen. Arthur Murray, U. S. A., retired, acting chairman of the central committee of the American Red Cross, says, in part:

"I desire to thank you for this fine manifestation of patriotism and public spirit in the name of the American Red Cross, which will carry out your humane intentions, and also for the American people, who will benefit by them. It is believed that there can be no more practical and useful way in which the Red Cross spirit of humanity can be put into practical operation than by making such preparations for the care of the wounded in war as to insure our soldiers in future, if the calamity of war should come, against a repetition of the unnecessary suffering and loss of life which has occurred from the lack of such preparations in all our wars heretofore."

U. S. SENATOR TOWNSEND'S

RENOMINATION CONCEDED

Leads His Opponents in Michigan

Primary—Representative Loud's

Success Doubtful.

DETROIT, Mich., August 30.—Additional returns from yesterday's statewide primary increased the lead of Senator Charles E. Townsend, republican, and his renomination was conceded today. Albert E. Sleeper of Bad Axe was leading his four opponents for the republican nomination for governor. His plurality over Frank B. Leonard of Detroit was more than 5,000.

Loren D. Dickinson was renominated for lieutenant governor on the republican ticket. There were no democratic contests for these offices. It was considered certain that all but one of Michigan's representatives seeking renomination were victorious. Representative George A. Loud of Bay City was a doubtful one. He was closely pressed by two republican candidates for renomination in the tenth district.

SEES KEEN COMPETITION AT CLOSE OF THE WAR

All Classes Must Prepare, Elihu Root Tells American Bar Association.

CHICAGO, August 30.—Keener competition in all economic activities in sure to be one of the results of the European war, and lawyers, as well as other classes of citizens must prepare themselves to meet it, President Elihu Root of the American Bar Association said today in addressing the annual meeting of the association.

Changes in the administration of justice, a lessening of the overhead cost of running legal machinery, and more stringent qualifications for admission to the bar were some of his preparatory suggestions.

"When the war is over we shall find ourselves in a very different world from that which witnessed the Austro-Serbian ultimatum to Serbia," Mr. Root declared. "It will be a world in which the greater part of the nations return to the peaceful competition of production and commerce with a vast increase of power to compete caused by the training of having had no peace."

Plainly, the neutral nations who have neither endured the sufferings nor achieved the rewards of this hard experience may not look with indifference upon these events.

Duty of All Americans.

"It is plainly the duty of all Americans, whatever their calling, to consider by what means they can contribute, through either the increase or the conservation of power in their own fields of action, toward the permanent higher efficiency of the people of the United States."

"There is no body of citizens to whom this duty should appeal more strongly than to the lawyers, because the subject vitally affects the relations between the individual and the state regulated by law and the fundamental principles upon which our system of government is based."

The underlying cause of the defective administration of the law, Mr. Root said, was that the bar and the people of the country generally proceeded upon a false assumption as to the true relation to judicial proceedings.

"Unconsciously," he continued, "we all treat the business of administering justice as something to be done for private benefit instead of treating it as a public duty to be done for the public service. The administration of law is affected by the general attitude in which citizens think about what they are going to get out of their country instead of thinking of what they can contribute to their country."

Such Attitude Natural.

"Our political system makes such an attitude on the part of the bar very natural and easy. With our highly developed individualism, our respect for the sanctity of individual rights, our conception of government as designed to secure those rights, it is quite natural that lawyers employed to assert the rights of individual clients and loyally devoted to their clients' interests should acquire a habit of mind in which they think chiefly of the individual view of judicial procedure, and of the public view of the same procedure. It is natural that the same habit of thought should be carried into our legislatures by the lawyers who make up the greater part of those bodies; and with our government of narrow and strictly limited powers it is natural that there should be a continual pressure in the direction of promoting individual rights and privileges and opportunities and very little pressure to maintain the community rights against the individual and to insist upon the individual's duties to the community."

The public tendency is exhibited at the very beginning of the whole business.

Grand Army Veterans

PARADE AT KANSAS CITY

Cool and Clear Weather Favors

Marching Survivors of the Civil War.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., August 30.—Thousands of veterans of the civil war, not a man of them less than sixty-five years old, marched through the streets of Kansas City in regimental formation behind the tattered flags they had followed as defenders of their country, in the annual parade today of the Grand Army of the Republic.

Some of them, the older and more feeble, leaned on canes or on the shoulders of an attendant khaki-clad Boy Scout.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., August 30.—Thousands of veterans of the civil war, not a man of them less than sixty-five years old, marched through the streets of Kansas City in regimental formation behind the tattered flags they had followed as defenders of their country, in the annual parade today of the Grand Army of the Republic.

Some of them, the older and more feeble, leaned on canes or on the shoulders of an attendant khaki-clad Boy Scout.

Priest for Twenty-Five Years.

Today marks the twenty-fifth anniversary of the ordination to priesthood of Rev. Aloysius P. Brosnan of the Society of Jesus, and for many years connected with Georgetown University. Father Brosnan has a wide acquaintance in Washington having lived here for a large part of his life. He was a student at Gonzaga College. He has been chaplain at the Georgetown Visitation convent for the last five years.

Public Holiday Proclaimed.

It was with drums beating, bands and life corps playing and faded blue uniforms brushed spick and span that today's march was made. Led by Commander E. P. Montfort and his staff, the thousands wound through the crowded streets. A public holiday had been proclaimed in Kansas City in honor of the war heroes, and reviewing stands were erected throughout the business district. Emergency hospital units were stationed at numerous corners.

Clear and cool weather made it easy for the veterans to withstand the hardships of the twelve blocks of tramping. They marched by state departments, although regimental formation was kept as closely as possible. Bands preceded almost every section, and there were several life and drum corps.

Illinois Has Honor Place.

The Illinois department, led by W. F. Calhoun, departmental commander, held the advance-guard honor of the parade, being immediately behind the commander-in-chief and his staff. Following came the Wisconsin, Pennsylvania, Ohio and New York departments, with the New England states and the remainder of the forty-four divisions bringing up the rear.

Several hours were required for the slowly moving parade to pass the official reviewing stand.

To Meet at Portsmouth, N. H.

The United States-Mexican joint commission to seek a solution of border difficulties will meet at Portsmouth, N. H., Wednesday or Thursday of next week. The day will be set by the commissioners themselves at a preliminary conference to be held in New York Monday.

Commerce Department Changes.

In the office of the Secretary Cora E. Wilhelm, clerk at $1,200, has resigned, and the following promotions have been made: Edwin Hadley Smith, clerk, from $1,000 to $1,200; Margaret A. Dailey, clerk, from $900 to $1,000; and Hazel G. Wood from assistant messenger at $720 to clerk at $900.

In the bureau of consular William A. Craig has been temporarily appointed as machinist at $1,200. In the bureau of standards Charles R. FAIRBANKS NOTIFICATION

TAKES PLACE TOMORROW

Republican Leaders Confer Today as to Campaign Plans in Indiana.

INDIANAPOLIS, August 30.—Preliminary to the official notification here tomorrow of Charles W. Fairbanks of his nomination for the vice presidency by the republican party, a conference of republican leaders was held here today. Final arrangements for the notification ceremonies were made and the part Mr. Fairbanks will take in the campaign discussed.

Among those participating in the conference were: A. T. Hert of Kentucky, manager of the republican western headquarters at Chicago; Frank H. Hitchcock, former Postmaster General; Ralph D. Cole, Ohio, chairman of the speakers' bureau, and Will H. Hays, republican state chairman of Indiana. National Chairman William R. Wilcox is expected to arrive late in the day. The campaign in Indiana, which has been described as the "Verdun of the 1916 political campaign," was to be one of the chief topics of the conference. With the candidates for the vice presidency of the democratic and republican parties and the candidate for the prohibition party residents of Indiana, and with two United States senators, members of Congress and a complete state ticket, including a governor, to elect, the campaign in Indiana promises to be the most bitterly contested of any in recent years.

All of those here for the conference are expected to remain for the notification ceremonies, and many others are expected from all over the country to-night and tomorrow morning.
